บทความออนไลน์

learning Lab

Designed to encourage multiple modes of learning, the Learning Lab contains hands-on activities, thought-provoking exhibits, and space for programs and live events, all meant to make the history and impact of technology accessible and relevant for visitors of all ages, backgrounds, and interests. The Learning Lab accommodates drop-in public access as well as a full calendar of community events and educational programs, workshops, and activities.

From https://computerhistory.org/learning-lab/